WESTERLY POLICE SET AUTO TRAP

To Catch Unwary Speeders-Town Council Permits T Rails on Bridge Extension-Award of Bond Issue for $102.310-School Children's Entrance Age Raised to Six-Obituary Notes.

An electric light wire was in contact with a big limb of an elm in front of the Nestor home in Eroad street, just after 3 o'clock Sunday night. The limb, 3 inches in diameter, was burned nearly through and then fell into the street, clearing the many wires and doing little damage.

There are others who believe that the local lads should go to New Haven Friday, have practice on the neutral field, and have a good rest before playing the Connecticut championship

At the monthly meeting of the Westerly town council the police were instructed to enforce the automobile laws, after explanation that some Watch Hill residents were driving automobiles without regard to law or public safety. The police have now established a "trap," nearly half a mile in length, and all who exceed the speed limit will be arrested and prosecuted. The location of the "trap" is secret and will not be divuged until it becomes necessary when an offender is tried in court.

There was a special meeting of the Westerly town council, Monday afternoon for the purpose of opening the bids for the issue of $160,000 town bonds, to take up outstanding indebtedness. The bonds were ordered sold to the highest bidder, Blodgett, Merritt & Co., at $102,2310. The bids received were as follows:

Kountz Bros, $99,689; Estabrook & Co., $160,-91; N. W. Harris & Co., $160,-91.

The funeral of Dudley Peabody was held from his residence in Spruce street Monday afternoon. Rev. George W. Rigier, D.D., officiated. The bear-ers were members of the fire depart-ment.

Manager Clifford of the Westerly high school baseball team, has completed arrangements for a game with the Hope high school team of Providence, champions of the Rhode Island-Connecticut league. The game will be played next Friday afternoon in Riverside park. It is probable that Pemher and Burrows will divide the pitching work.

On Saturday the Westerly team will compete with the champions of the Eastern division for the champions of the Eastern division for the championstic league.

Manager Clifford and members of the advisory board are of opinion that the game on Friday will be of great benefit to the team in the contest for the Connecticut state championship, the next day, and will also decide the actual high school championship of Rhode Island.

Treasurer Pendleton notified the council that suit had been brought against the town by Thomas and Marageret Conway, through their attorneys, Dixon & Rathbun, claiming $2.500 damages by reason of overflow of surface water upon their land in Tower street. The council voted to retain Attorney Everett A. Kingsley to guard the town's interest in the case.

After approving and ordering the payment of several bills the council adjourned.

TEACHER'S SUICIDE. Miss May Lyon, 23, of Westford, Shoots Herself-Case of Temporary Insan-

At West Willington Friday night Miss May Lyon, aged 28, who had just completed a successful year of teaching in the town of Tolland, in the Buff Cap district, committed suicide where she was visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Converse. She found a loaded revolver in the dector's office and, taking it into her bedroom, shot herself through the head, necessitating the calling of the medical examiner, Dr. F. E. Johnson, of Mansfield Depot, Miss Lyon was ill with appendicitis some time ago, but of late had apparently been in good health, although she had been working hard during the past year and had become run down. The only explanation given for her act is that she became temporarily insane. She was the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lyon of Westford, formerly of Willimantic, and had been teaching two years. The body was taken to Westford and private funeral services were held at the home of the parents Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, followed by burial in the Westford cemetery.
